- Oversee and monitor the effectiveness of the Company's strategies and policies pertaining to the environment, social practices, health and safety, sustainable business practices and other corporate responsibility performance.

4. Board Process/Effectiveness

- Ensure that Board materials are distributed to directors in advance of regularly scheduled meetings to allow for sufficient review of the materials prior to such meetings. Directors are expected to attend all meetings and to review Board materials in advance of each meeting.
- Engage in the process of determining Board member qualifications, with the assistance of the Governance and Compensation Committee, including setting reasonable and measurable targets to build a diverse Board, as contemplated by the Company's Board Diversity Policy, and ensuring that a majority of directors qualify as independent directors within the meaning attributed to such term in National Instrument 58-101 – Disclosure of Corporate Governance Practices (as implemented by the Canadian Securities Administrators and as amended from time to time).
- Approve the nomination of directors.
- Provide a comprehensive orientation to each new director.
- Establish an appropriate system of corporate governance, including practices to ensure the Board functions independently of management, as well as developing a set of corporate governance principles and guidelines.
- Establish appropriate practices for the regular evaluation of the effectiveness of the Board, its committees and its members.
- Establish committees and approve their respective mandates and the limits of authority delegated to each committee.
- Review and re-assess the adequacy of the Audit Committee Mandate on a regular basis, but not less frequently than on an annual basis.
- Review the adequacy and form of the directors' compensation to ensure it accurately reflects the responsibilities and risks involved in being a director.
- Each member of the Board is expected to understand the nature of the Company's business, and have an awareness of the political, economic and social trends prevailing in the areas in which the Company invests, or is contemplating potential investment, including but not limited to trends related to environmental, social and governance matters which are relevant to PrairieSky's shareholders.
- Independent directors shall meet regularly, and in no case less frequently than quarterly, without non-independent directors and management participation.
- In addition to the above, adhere to all other Board responsibilities as set forth in the Company's articles and by-laws, the Company's Business Code of Conduct and any related policies, practices and guidelines, as approved and implemented by the Board and senior management from time to time, and other statutory and regulatory obligations.

5. Miscellaneous

- The Board may engage outside resources as deemed advisable.
- The Board shall review this mandate on a periodic basis.
